Admitted claims	(i) If such claim is admitted wholly or in part, the Forest Settlement Officer may (1) come to an agreement with the claimant for the surrender of the right; or (2) exclude the land from the limits of the proposed forests, or (3) proceed to acquire such land in the manner provided by the Land Acquisition Act, 1870.

	For the purpose of so acquiring such lands:-
	(i) the Forest Settlement Officer shall be deemed to be a Collector proceeding under the Land Acquisition Act, 1870
	(ii) the claimant shall be deemed to be a person interested and appearing before him in pursuance of a notice given under section 9 of that Act.
	(iii) The provisions of the preceding sections of that Act shall be deemed to have been complied with; and
	(iv) The Forest Settlement Officer with the consent of the claimant, or the Court (as defined in the said Act) with the consent of the claimant and of the Collector of the district may award compensation by the grant of right in or over land, or by the payment of money, or both.
Rejected Claims appeals	(2) If such claim is rejected wholly or in part, the claimant may, within thirty days from the date of the order prefer an appeal to the District Court in respect of such, rejection only; provided, that the <sup>1</sup> Government

	may, on just and reasonable cause for the same being shown, extend the period for such appeal within such further period as may seem proper, and an order or endorsement under the signature of one of the Secretaries to Government shall be sufficient authority for the said Court to entertain such appeal beyond the limit above specified. If the court decides that the claim or such part thereof as has been rejected should, be admitted, the Forest Settlement Officer shall proceed to deal with it in like manners as if it had been in the first instance admitted by himself.
	(3) When a claim has been admitted in the first instance wholly or in part, a like appeal may be preferred on behalf of Government by the Forest Officer appointed under section 4 or other person generally or specially empowered by the <sup>1</sup>Government in this behalf.
Claims to rights of way watercourse pasture and to Forest produce	11. In the case of a claim to rights of the kind specified in clauses (a) , (b), (c) and (d) of section 10, the Forest Settlement Officer shall pass an order specifying the particulars of such claim as far as may be necessary to define the nature incidents and extent of the rights, claimed and admitting or rejecting such claim wholly or in part,
	When a claim to any such right is admitted, if the right is for the beneficial enjoyment of any land or buildings, he shall record the designation, position and area of such land, and the designation, position and area of such land, and the designation and position of such buildings.

	Where the right is a right to forest produce, he shall also record whether the forest produce, obtained by the exercise of such right may be sold or bartered.
Provision of rights of pasture or to Forest produce admitted	12. When the Forest Settlement Officer has admitted wholly or in part, and recorded under section 11, a claim to a right of pasture or to forest produce, he shall, as far as possible, provide for the exercise of such right:-
	(a) by altering the limits of the proposed reserved forest so as to exclude land of sufficient extent, of suitable kind, and in a locality reasonably convenient for the purposes of the claimant;
	(b) by recording an order continuing to the claimant a right of pasture or to forest produce (as the case may be) subject to such rules as may be prescribed by the <sup>1</sup> Government
	The order passed under clause (b) shall record as far as practicable, the number and description of the cattle which the claimant is from time to time entitled to graze, the local limits within which and the seasons during, which such pasture is permitted; or;
	The quantity of timber or other forest produce which the claimant is authorized to take or receive, the local limits within which, the season during which and the mode in which the taking of such produce is permitted; and;
	Such other particulars as may be required in order define the extent of the right which is continued, and the mode in which it may be exercised.

Commutation of such rights	13. Whenever any right of pasture or to forest produce admitted under section 11 is not provided for in one of the ways prescribed in section 12, the Forest Settlement Officer shall, subject, to such rules as the Government, may prescribe in this behalf, commute such right by paying a sum of money in lieu thereof or with the consent of the claimant, by the grant of right in or over land or in such other manner as such officer thinks fit.
Appeal from order passed under sections 11,12 and 13	14. The claimant or the Forest Officer appointed under section 4, or any other person generally or specially empowered by the government in this behalf may within 60 days, from the date of any order passed by the Forest Settlement Officer under sections 11,12, and 13 present an appeal from such order to a forest Court constituted as hereinafter provided or where no such court is constituted, to such officer of the Revenue Department of not less than 12 years standing as the <sup>1</sup> Government may, from time to time by notification in the <sup>2</sup> Official Gazette appoint by name or as holding an office, to hear appeals from such orders.
	In disposing of such appeals the Revenue Officer appointed as aforesaid shall be guided by the provisions of sections 39 and 40 of this Act.
Appeal under section 14	15. Every appeal under section 14 shall be made by petition in writing, and may be delivered to the Forest Settlement Officer who shall forward it without delay to the appellate authority.

	16. When the following events have occurred namely:-
	(a) the period fixed under section 6 for preferring claims has elapsed; and all claims (if any) made within such period have been disposed of by the Forest Settlement Officer; and
	(b) if such claims have been made, the period fixed by sections 10 and 14 for appealing from the orders passed on such claims has elapsed, and all appeals (if any) presented within such period have been disposed of by the appellate authority and;
	(c) all proceedings prescribed by section 10 have been taken and all lands (if any) to be included in the proposed forest which the Forest Settlement Officer has under section 10 elected to acquire under the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, have become vested in the Government under section 16 of that Act;
	The <sup>1</sup> Government may publish a <sup>2</sup> notification in the <sup>3</sup> Official Gazette specifying the limits of the forest which it is intended to reserve and declaring the same to be reserved from a date to be fixed by such notification
	The Forest Settlement Officer shall, before the date so fixed publish such notification in the manner prescribed for the proclamation under section 6. From the date so fixed, such forest shall be deemed to be reserved forest.
Extinction of rights not claimed	17. Right in respect of which no claim has been preferred under section 6 shall thereupon be extinguished, unless, before the publication of such notification, the person claiming them has satisfied the Forest Settlement Officer that he had sufficient cause for not preferring such claim within the period fixed under section 6; in which case the Forest Settlement Officer shall proceed to dispose of the claim in the manner herein before provided.

Power of the Government to redefine the limits of reserved forests in certain cases.	17-A(1) While the description of the limits any reserved forest notified under section 16 is defective or is not clear in reference to existing facts, the <sup>2</sup> Government may, by <sup>3</sup> notification in the <sup>4</sup> Official Gazette declare their intention to redefine the limits of such reserved forests so as to remove the defect or to make the description clear in reference to existing facts. Such notification shall specify as nearly as possible the corrections which it is proposed to effect to the limits of the reserved forest.
	(2) On the issue of a notification under sub-section (1), the District Forest Officer shall publish in the official Gazette of the district concerned and in such other manner as may be prescribed by rules made in that behalf a notice
	(a) specifying the corrections proposed by the notification under sub-section (1); and
	(b) stating that any objections which may be made in person or in writing to the District Forest Officer, within a period of 30 days from the date of publication of the notice, will be considered by him.
	(3) After the expiry of the period referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (2) and after considering the objections, if any, received by him, the District Forest Officer shall submit to the Government the record of the proceedings held by him together with a report thereon.

	(4) The <sup>1</sup> Government may, after considering the report of the District Forest Officer, by notification in the <sup>2</sup> Official Gazette redefine the limits of the reserved forest, as proposed by the notification under sub-section (1), with such modifications as they think fit or without any modifications.
	(5) Save as provided in this section, it shall not be necessary to follow the procedure laid down in section 4 to 16 before issuing a notification under sub-section (4).
No right acquired over reserved forest except as here provided	18. No right of any description shall be acquired in or over a reserved forest, except under a grant or contract in writing made by or on behalf of the Government, or by or on behalf of some person in whom such right, or the power to create such right, was vested when the notification under section 16 was published or by succession from such persons:
	Provided that no patta shall without previous sanction of the <sup>3</sup> Board of Revenue be granted on behalf of Government for any land included within a reserved forest, and every patta granted without such sanction shall be null and void.
Rights continued under section 12 not to be alienated without sanction	19. Notwithstanding anything herein contained no right continued under section 12 shall be alienated by

	way of grant, sale, lease, mortgage or otherwise without the sanction of the Government; Provided that, when any such right is continued for the beneficial enjoyment of any land or buildings, it may be sold or otherwise alienated with such land or buildings without such sanction. Any alienation of such right in contravention of this section shall be null and void.
	No forest produce obtained in exercise of any right continued under section 12 shall be sold or bartered except to the extent defined by the order recorded under sections 11 and 12.

CHAPTER – IV

OF THE CONTROL OVER FORESTS AND LANDS NOT AT THE DISPOSAL OF GOVERNMENT OR IN WHICH GOVERNMENT HAS A LIMITED INTEREST

On certain lands, the breaking up or clearing for cultivation, etc may be regulated for prohibited	29. The <sup>1</sup> Government may from time to time by notification in the <sup>2</sup> Official Gazette and in the Official Gazettes of the district affected thereby regulate or prohibit in any forest wasteland not at the disposal of Government
	(a) the breaking up or clearing of land for cultivation;
	(b) the pasturing of cattle;
	(c) the firing or clearing of the vegetation; when such regulation or prohibition appears to be necessary for any of the following purposes:-
	First - For protection against storms, winds, rolling stones, floods and avalanches;
	Second - For the preservation of the soil on the ridges and slopes, and in the valleys of hilly tracts, the prevention of landslips and of the formation of ravines and torrents and the protection of land against erosion, or the deposit thereon of sand, stones or gravel;
	Third - For the maintenance of a water-supply in springs, rivers and tanks;
	Fourth - For the protection of roads, bridges, railways and other lines of communication;

	Fifth - For the preservation of the public health and may alter or cancel such notification;
	The Government may, for any such purpose, construct at their own expense, in or upon any such forest or land , such works as they think fit:
	Provided that no such notification shall be made or work begun until after the issue of a notice to the owner of such forest or land calling upon him to show cause, within a reasonable period to be specified in such notice, why such notification should not be made or work constructed, and until his objections (if any) and any evidence he may produce in support of the same have been heard by an officer duly appointed in that behalf, and have been considered by the Government.
In case of refusal by owner Government may take such lands on lease or acquire them.	30. Whenever the owner of such forest or land may decline to comply with the regulations or directions contained in the said notification, it shall be incumbent upon the Government, if they resolve to assume control of the said forest or land, to take the said forest or land, or so much of it as they may see fit, on lease from the owner for such term as they may deem it necessary to retain the same under control, and the owner shall be bound either to conclude such lease with the Government or to require that such forest or land shall be acquired for public purposes, and in the latter event the Government shall acquire such forests or land accordingly. If such lease is agreed upon, the amount of annual rent to be reserved, and all other questions arising between the owner or persons claiming to be owners and the Government shall in case of dispute, be determined in accordance, so far as may be, with the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870.
Acquisition of forest or land	31. In any case under this Chapter in which the Government consider that, in lieu of taking the forest or land under its control, the same should be acquired

under the Land Acquisition Act	for public purposes, the Government may proceed to acquire it in the manner prescribed by the Land Acquisition Act, 1870.
Protection of forest at request of owners	32. The owner of any land, or, if there be more than one owner thereof, the owners of shares therein, whether divided or not, amounting in the aggregate to at least two-thirds thereof, may, with a view to the formation or conservation of forests thereon represent in writing to the Collector their desire-
	(a) that such land be managed on their behalf by the District Forest Officer, as a reserved forest, on such terms as may be agreed upon; or
	(b) that such land be managed subject to the control of the Collector by a person appointed by themselves and approved by the Collector; or
	(c) that all or any of the provisions of this Act or rules made thereunder be applied to such land.
	The Government may in any such case, by notification in the <sup>2</sup>Official Gazette, apply to such land such provisions of this Act as it thinks suitable to the circumstances thereof and as may be desired by the applicants.
	Any such notification may be altered or cancelled by a like notification.
Management of forests, the joint property of Government	33. If the Government and any person or persons are jointly interested in a forest or waste-land, or in the whole or any part of the produce thereof, the Government may either- (a) undertake the management of such forest, waste-land or produce, accounting to such person for his interest in the same; or

and other persons	(b) issue such regulations for the management of the forest, wasteland or produce by the persons so jointly interested as it deems necessary for the management thereof and the interests of all parties therein.
	When the Government undertakes, under clause (a) of this section, the management of any forest, waste-land or produce, it may, by notification in the <sup>1</sup> Official Gazette and the Official Gazette of the district., declare that any of the provisions contained in Chapters II and III of this Act shall apply to such forest, wasteland or produce, and there upon such provisions shall apply accordingly.
Persons employed to carry out the Act to be deemed Forest Officer	34.All persons employed under sections 30, 32 and 33 to carry out the provisions of this Act shall be deemed to be Forest Officers within the meaning of this Act.  <sup>2</sup> The Government shall also have power to appoint any person to discharge any function of a Forest Officer under any of the provisions of this Act which have been extended to any land or to any forest or waste land or produce thereof by a notification under section 32 or section 33 or under any rule made in pursuance of any provision so extended.

CHAPTER – V

CONTROL OF TIMBER IN TRANSIT
Power to make rules to regulate transit of timber	35. The <sup>1</sup> Government may make rules to regulate the transit of all timber or of certain classes of timber within local limits as may appear to be necessary. Such rules may (among other matters)-
